

1,500 See Brilliant Scene At Legislature Opening. Crowd Sets 29-Yr. Record

Large Demand For Seats

Largest attendance in the history of the legislature over a period of 29 years, it is believed, some 1,500 people attended the opening of the house Thursday.

Long before the opening, citizens packed the public and private members' galleries. The speakers' gallery was taxed to capacity, while available space was taken on the main floor of the legislative chamber.

House officials declared that never in their experience had there been such a demand for seats. Many visitors could not be accommodated with seats and contented themselves with standing about the corridors and watching the lieutenant-governor's party arrive and depart, attended with the customary military ceremonies.

All of the 63 members of the house were present with two exceptions, namely, F. S. Girdale, (U.F.A.) Olds, and J. J. MacLellan, (U.F.A.) Taber.

Occupying the seats among the Liberals, were the Hon. Manning, A. E. Miskew, Victoria, and Omer St. Germain, St. Albert, created considerable interest.

All members of the Liberal group were in their places, as were the six Conservatives, four Labor and a similar number of Independents.

On the treasury benches, all members of the cabinet were present. The first bill of the present session moved by Premier Brownlee, was the Town Planning Act, 1929, Amendment Act, 1934. It was given a first reading.

The house agreed to a striking committee of nine members to report upon standing committees for the session.

Just 25 minutes was taken for the opening ceremonies this time being about the same as in other years.

Resuming at 3:00 p.m. Friday, the house will first hear A.M. Matheson, (U.F.A.) Vegreville who will move adoption of the address in reply to the speech from the throne. This honor was declined by P. A. Miskew, who was the original choice, in deciding to join the Liberal opposition.

R. M. McCool, (U.F.A.) Cochrane, will second the reply to the throne speech. It is expected that the adjournment will be made by W. E. Howson, Liberal leader, in which case he would continue the debate at 8:00 p.m. Monday.

Local Hockey Team Defeated By Irma Team With Score 6 - 3

More Support Needed For A Winning Team

At the local arena on Wednesday evening of last week the Irma Hockey Team demonstrated to the followers of the game just how hockey should be played.

Only a fair sized crowd was on hand to witness the battle, owing to winter attractions at the curling rink and other places.

In passing, we would like to say that when a hockey game is on in town, every other attraction should be cancelled if at all possible, and every effort should be made to give the boys and the rink management a boost. That would be showing community spirit.

Our boys lost the game, and have been on the losing side in most of their games this winter; but you, Mr. and Mrs. Fan Citizen; What have you done to help them win?

In Irma, last week they had a fifty dollar gate at a hockey game, and Irma has a winning team because they had a fifty dollar gate. In other words "EVERY MAN WOMAN & CHILD" in Irma is behind their Team pushing.

In the game on Wednesday, the boys put up a splendid fight and the game was much more evenly contested than the score would indicate. Fincher scored the first goal for Irma on a long shot from the blue line. The shot looked easy for Burton in the Wainwright goal, but in some unaccountable manner it got by and registered.

Chanderson drew combined for the next country, Russell getting the marker on Vaughn's pass.

Irma scored two more in this period; Lawson getting one on an assist from Hendricks and Ray Martin getting the other all by his lonesome.

In the second frame, Lawson again scored two goals while Wainwright could only get one; Doug Wallace making a neat shot on a pass from Dupre.

Going into the third period, the locals put on a barrage that had fans on their toes and had the whole Irma team backed into their own goal throughout the entire action. Only one player was kept on defence in the Wainwright end and had it not been for the sensational goal tending of Yeoman in the Irma goal, the final result would have been different.

Laure secured one goal in this period on a pass from Stuart, and Irma got one by Hendricks assisted by Smallwood.

Laure, Watson and Ganderton bombarded the Irma goal repeatedly and on one occasion, Dupre went right through with no one to beat but the goalie; but Yeoman was invincible and the game ended 6-3 in favor of Irma.

Burton, in the Wainwright goal was replaced by Coffield after the end of the first period. Burton was not up to his old time form but Coffield held things fairly even after he came on.

Yeoman, in goal for Irma was the outstanding player on the ice while Lawson was also very effective, getting three goals for his team. The Wainwright line worked like trojans but the breaks were against them.

THE LINE UP

IRMA	WAINWRIGHT
Yeoman	Goal
Luken	Defence
Fischer	Hyde
Sharkey	Tory
Lawson	Forwards
Hendricks	Worion
Smallwood	R. Ganderton
McGuire	Dupre

A.Y.P.A. Hold Successful Dance

Lunch was served at midnight by members of the A. Y. P. A. which consisted of sandwiches, cake and coffee.

The music was supplied by "The Vagabonds" assisted by Joe Collette and Grace Wittmann.

SYNOPSIS

Camilla Hoyt and Peter Anson, young and in love, marry secretly, deciding to live their own lives apart until Peter is able to provide for her. Peter is a young, struggling sculptor trying to win a competition for a scholarship abroad and Camilla is the adopted daughter of a wealthy family. She is not, to inherit money when she comes of age and so is studying commercial art in the hope of landing an agency job. Others in the story are Avis Werth, another wealthy girl who is trying to win Peter, Sylvia Todd, Peter's model, and Gus Matson, his former roommate with whom he has quarrelled. At a party at an exclusive club Peter entertains Camilla and meets with impromptu success. When the rest of the members of the party go to a cabaret to continue the party, Peter and Camilla slip off to the beach by themselves and fall asleep on the sand. When they awake it is early morning and Avis and another boy are standing near them. This makes it necessary for Camilla to announce before the party that she and Peter are married. Avis is stunned and Camilla's mother likewise. Camilla decides that she must leave the home of her adopted parents immediately and go to live with Rose, her sister, who is a file clerk in a business house. They decide to take an apartment. Bowman and Weeks, an advertising agency, where Camilla has submitted some of her work, send for her and tell her they have a new account which requires unusual treatment of juvenile art. To Camilla's surprise she learns that the account is that of her foster father's company, which has decided on an extensive campaign to bolster up her big business. After a conference with Mr. Bowman, Camilla decides to attempt the work. With ideas running riot in her head she goes home and spends the night sketching. In the morning, armed with her samples she sets out for the agency.

(Now Go On With The Story)

CHAPTER XXXX

It was a question which girl had received the sudden announcement of Peter's marriage with more disappointment and amazement, Avis or Sylvia. To Avis, however, it was merely another obstacle in the path toward her ambition. To Sylvia, it presaged a certain finality for the two possibilities she had visioned, and for which she had been playing a double hand. As she exclaimed to her astonished image when she read the announcement in the society column of the morning paper. "Well for crying at the moon! Who would have thought they could feel everyone like that? Oh, oh, I guess last night was out with flowers, all right, either way you look at it. I'll bet the high and mighty Avis Werth feels like a pucker up green apple, herself."

The snarling of the telephone bell interrupted her monologue. "Hunt! the green apple herself, I'll bet."

"Yeah, hello," she drawled, and nodded her head with confirmation toward her silent audience of one, in the mirror.

"You've seen the latest news?" inquired Avis.

"I just read it, and as if you read my mind, the phone rings. I guessed it was you right away."

"Clever of you, I'm sure. But you haven't been so clever with Mr. Anson as you expected to be."

"Well, and isn't this good enough proof of the reason why? A new man—what would you expect of me with such competition as that? I guess it surprised even you, didn't it? Not much chance for either of us, there."

"Either of us?" surprised.

"Well, you know what I mean. No chance for me to vamp him away from the Hoyt girl so you could take him over in sympathy," she added to herself, "Fine chance you'd had at him if I had got that far."

"I don't know why not?"

"You don't mean you're not ready to give him up, yet?"

"Why should I? Just because a man is married doesn't mean that he's chained to a life sentence, does it? In fact, this particular situation makes it easier to break up. But I'll take the affair into my own hands."

"But, say," Sylvia objected, "I gotta finish my work for him, even if he's married. I wouldn't be so mean as to cheat a fellow like that when he's done nothing to me. Besides, I have some pride in the ethics of my profession, and my reputation. Models don't desert an employer in the middle of a piece of work."

"But yourself about that," Avis agreed indifferently, "but you don't seem to be about quitting me in the middle of a piece of work. I won't need your services longer, and if you see a new tenant in Annex Hall soon, don't recognize me."

"Okay with me, Miss Werth. Rent two studios in the Annex Hall, for all I care."

"Try the way, you will be wise if I drop your efforts to attract Mr. Anson."

"Say, I'm only too glad not to be under obligation to think up new ways for throwing out that iceberg," she retorted, but her blue eyes twinkled with the thought. "Being under obligation no more, let's run out. But I guess if he is still ripe for cherries for you, he is for me, too, your highness!"

But when Sylvia went to Peter's studio on the following day to pose, she experienced a new and kinder interest in the man and his work. She twitted him in her characteristic gay manner.

"So! young man, you've been misrepresenting yourself to me as a bachelor, and all the time you were a married man, with a trusting wife concealed in your private life."

"Well, I guess I've given you a good reason for complaint," he laughed easily.

"I'll say you haven't," she admired. "But say, I'd like to see the girl that stirred you up enough to lead you to the marriage license bureau and then keep it a secret."

"You may, any time you wish. I'll have Camilla run in some day and meet you. She would like to, I'm sure."

"Camilla—well name. Is she as beautiful as her name sounds?"

"Ever so much more beautiful!" he declared proudly.

Sylvia reflected upon that with haste. "More beautiful than I am?"

"I wouldn't say that—no. But your types are so different, I couldn't compare you. She is about your size, but has dark eyes and black hair."

"Then I was wasting my time, anyway."

"I might have known a blond gentleman like you would prefer a brunette. Well, good luck to you two, and that means we had better get to work."

"Thanks, yes, it does," Peter replied. "I have to get this thing ready to cast the statue in another week, or I won't be ready for the exhibit, after all."

Several days later, when Sylvia came again to Peter's studio, she observed that the hall was strewn with crates and boxes.

"Someone moving in across the hall?" she asked him.

"Looks like it, doesn't it?"

"Well, it'll be nice to have near

Acquiring Knowledge

Newspaper Should Be Read Like Book, States Chatham Judge

Judge McFadden of Chatham, Ontario, always has something worth while when he makes a public address, says the Border Cities Star.

Speaking to a group in Chatham, his Honor discussed the important subject of reading, saying, among other things that newspapers should be read like a book, with due concentration, in order to absorb valuable information. If people would read their newspapers properly, Judge McFadden observed, they would be well posted, well educated in fact.

We were particularly impressed with this paragraph from our report of His Honor's address: "We read for two main purposes—to acquire knowledge and for pleasure. It should be a pleasure to acquire knowledge, but this means work and to many persons work is never a pleasure."

As Judge McFadden says, it should be a pleasure to acquire knowledge, yet all so many persons who have plenty of natural ability, never seem to get this point of view. His remarks provide valuable food for thought.

How good to see the way, to know the path,
Whereon I shall this hour set my feet;

How good to leave behind the doubt,
And all the dull insignia of defeat!

No wanderer groping long through underground
Black caves, down chambers echoing and cold.

Can, glancing daylight, thrill with so profound
A rapture when he sees the sun's

Upon the meadows, hears the lark's clear call.
At this day, I, who have arrived at last

At the sure boundary of a massive wall
Which shuts me out from all the barren past.

How good to know that I, who still have
Have gained a barrier absolute as death!

Necessity Of Research

Specialists Working On Problems Should Get In Touch With The Practical Man

Speaking of the danger to agricultural research in that the specialist may become so fascinated with the intricacies of the problem that he forgets the end to which his researches are directed, Sir A. Daniel Hall told the Canadian Society of Technical Agriculturists that those directing research should try to ensure that all the workers made contacts with the practical man.

"This is inevitable," he said, "and we cannot get the best work done, and we cannot solve or even get an appreciation of many of the difficult problems that are before us unless we have such specialists, each at liberty to go on working in his own way, and pursuing his particular bent to the utmost, but we can do something to make these people human. In order to do that, let us try to ensure that they have contacts with agriculture itself."

Whether the new shoe is bolted, laced, glued or screwed to the horse's hoof was not disclosed by the inventor.

Canada Able To Produce Enough For Home Needs

Canada does not import many eggs, the domestic hen apparently being able to cater for her own folk. The few we get—3,764 dozen in December, which was considerably above the average of the past year—came mainly from Hong Kong, United States and Australia. The total supply in 1933 was 24,753 dozen.

That is, eggs in the shell, for we get frozen and dried eggs from China and the United States to some little extent—36,706 pounds in 1933, which was less than one-third of the 1932 requirement.

HIGHWAY

An "Emerald Gas" truck came through on Friday from Calgary via Edmonton. He carried a load of 1100 gallons of gasoline for A. Dupre. This gives some idea of what may be done over Alberta roads in mid-winter. While it would have been much shorter to travel by direct route, the driver chose rather the longer way, travelling by the Highway until nearing Wainwright, when the Highway ended.

The driver stated that he had very little difficulty negotiating this long trip in mid-winter, until he came to the unfinished portion of Edmonton-Wainwright Highway. He came on gravel all the way till he got to Holden, and graded road until Irma was reached. We did not take down all he said about the road from Irma to Wainwright, comment is superfluous.

If this road can be completed this year it will prove a boon to merchants and business men along this line, as well as permitting many to use their cars during the winter months. It may never be completed if we trust to the good nature of the Government, to do it for us. Governments are not constituted that way. If we do not care whether the Highway is completed or not, why should we expect the Government to spend money completing this Highway when delegations are being sent with demands for work in their own districts, some even threatening that they will not forget their grievances at the next Provincial elections.

It may be that the Minister of Highways may think that this Highway is built far enough already. We happen to live in a constituency bordering on Saskatchewan. The Highway has been built into this constituency, graded to the home town of the local representative, and what need is there for spending any more in this constituency? Our local member could visit his home town almost any day all winter, by car, without chains, what more is needed?

The Provincial Legislature opened its session on Thursday last. If Wainwright intends to make any representations to the Government, when are they going to start? When can they get a better chance than now? The minutes of Town Council printed elsewhere in this issue, indicate no interest on their part, as a body, in the question, the Board of Trade, of which we happen unfortunately, to be a member, have not awakened yet to the point of passing any comment on the subject, one of the town "fathers" did indicate that he would like to consign us to the same place as alarm clocks are often consigned, at the morning hour.

Honestly men; do you not think it is high time to get together and get started on a united effort to get this Highway completed this year?

HOPPERS

We read in the news columns of some members of the Government party "Bolting" or "Hopping" to the other side of the house. In the old days when a man turned from one party to another he was called a "Turncoat." It is the privilege and duty of any man to change his opinions. It would seem however to our mind a more reasonable attitude for a man unable to support all their party's programme to have joined the Independent minority and so have the privilege to support the Government on those issues in which they do agree. The elections at Bon Accord seem to disapprove of the action of their representative.

EARLY CLOSING ON SATURDAY NIGHTS.

The early closing ballots are still coming in, unanimously in favor of Early Closing. If you have not yet voted, there is still time, we are not issuing a ballot this week (not enough space) but you can clip one from last week's issue or get one at our office. Don't hesitate to express your opinion.

VOX POP

(While we open our columns for our readers use, we do not necessarily endorse all opinions expressed in these columns.—Ed.)

To the Editor:
Wainwright Record.

Dear Sir:
Allow me to congratulate you on your stand regarding public affairs. In the past the press in Wainwright has always pussy-footed about the bush and have never had nerve enough to try to wake up our "City Fathers" or the Board of Trade. He Early Closing. The idea is a good one, but we have stores in town that are open almost all the time, even Sunday. It has always appeared to me as a waste of light and heat, keeping the clerks standing in the stores so late Saturday nights that they cannot get enjoyment. The business done Saturday night after seven o'clock could so easily be done earlier in the day; but all must close to make it effective.

If we are to have Early Closing laws and Holidays, let our Police Department see that these laws are enforced.

Regarding the argument going on under this heading, the Financial Statement of the Wainwright Hospital should be sufficient to guide the ratepayers in this matter.

Yours truly,
Alf Chesterman.

To the Editor:
Wainwright Record,
Wainwright, Alberta.

Dear Sir:
May I again trespass on your valuable space, to place before your many readers, the following suggestions.

To one who came from the "Old Country" and who indulged in more than an average share of my sporting proclivities, the absence of "sport" in the rural districts of our province, has been most marked. The boys and girls of today are just as badly in need of organized sport, in my time, and from almost every point of view, is also very essential. Can we here in Alberta say in very truth, that our boys and girls are indulging in their national games, like the children of other countries? I think not. And there is not the slightest need for such a deplorable situation to further exist. Cannot we do something to alter the present condition? I believe so! If a concerted effort is made among the sporting element of the district. Last year, the Wainwright Ball team aroused quite an enthusiastic interest in the district, so for the benefit of "sport" in general that interest must not only be maintained, but every effort made to increase it. How can this be accomplished? Firstly, by extending the "Baseball League" to include several more teams from outlying districts. Secondly, by forming a Junior or 2nd division off the league. This may well include the pupils of the Wainwright Schools, and those of the rural school districts. I believe there are many rural S. Districts, which have sufficient scholars and ex scholars to form a baseball team. If there should be a lack of players in anyone district, then two districts could very well amalgamate to advantage. Thirdly, from what I observed last year, "soft ball" is becoming a great game among the girls. So why not start a league for them? A progressive community is synonymous of the people living in it, so I am sure, we are all keen to make Wainwright a real live sporting community.

Our "Ball team" last year put "Wainwright" upon the "map", so let us go a step further this year, and put "her" right at the very top. Hoping to see this matter taken up by a more able pen than mine.

Yours sincerely
George A. Bond

WEEKLY PAPER SUSPENDS

KERROBERT. The Kerrobert Citizen Publishing Company has again found it necessary to discontinue publication of its weekly paper until business shows some improvement. It is expected that they will resume publication on March 1. Due to roads being blocked, cash purchases at a minimum and conditions generally bad, the merchants are unable to maintain their support of the Citizen for the time being.

ROSEDALE COMMENTS

(Too Late for Last Week)

The Annual Meeting of Rosedale L. A. was held on January 4th at the home of Mrs. H. Gilbert. Officers returned and elected for the coming year are as follows: President—Mrs. Edgar Arlyon, Vice-President—Mrs. Brady and Mrs. Burnett, Secretary—Mrs. W. F. Redmond, Work Secretary—Mrs. Graig, Dev. Secretary—Mrs. Empey. Very satisfactory reports were presented by the secretaries on the years work and the ladies felt that a very successful year had been completed.

Sunnyside U.F.W.A. met on Thursday, January 11th at the home of Mrs. Gilbert. There was a small attendance but a very good meeting was enjoyed, the February meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Empey.

Among those of this district who were Edmonton visitors during convention week were: Mrs. Betty, Mrs. Postans, Mrs. Reynolds, Mrs. Burnett, Mrs. Frank Redmond and Mrs. Warnock. They all report a very enjoyable time.

Mrs. Reynolds has not returned from Edmonton yet as she was detained in the city by the illness of her daughter, Eileen, who has been attending school in the city. We are sorry to hear that Eileen has the mumps and wish her a speedy recovery.

A dandy masquerade dance was held in Rosedale last Friday, February 2nd. There was an excellent display of costumes, ladies prize going to Mrs. Everett Taylor, "Mrs. Lindberg" and girls prize going to Jack Guthrie "Spanish Cavalier".

Mrs. J. Guthrie, Sr. has been on the sick list lately and we hope she will soon be well again.

C. G. Moore has also been under the weather lately and we wish him a speedy recovery.

Rev. Rainbridge was unable to get out to the church last Sunday for service, owing to roads and bad weather conditions.

A CORRECTION

We wish to make a correction of a statement of last week. The Goulet—Hefferman wedding was not solemnized at the Rectory, but as usual at the Church.

As a wheat producer India is almost equal to Canada. Its gross production amounts to about 7,736,000 tons. The total area under wheat is about 32 million acres, of which the Punjab alone contributes 10 million acres.

Shipments of live stock from Western to Eastern Canada for the first two weeks of this year ended January 11th, comprised 2,405 cattle; 58 calves; 10,301 hogs; and 2,496 sheep.

Prayer is a great privilege. It is one of God's greatest gifts; perhaps the greatest of all, for through prayer all things divine may come to us. A minute of prayer can make the whole day different. An hour of prayer may change a lifetime.

Prayer is a door key that admits to the holy place. Prayer is like stopping at a gas station to fill up for the next hundred miles. Prayer is the switch that turns on the electric "juice," the button that flashes the house full of light. Prayer is the sluice that floods the dry acres. Prayer is an oasis in the desert; a safe-station in a blizzard; a cache in the lone North.

In fact, Prayer is whatever God is, for it is the chief way He comes to us. Therefore, stop a moment even now and pray: "As I have done while writing this. In a flash we assure ourselves that we are in the holy or holies. We replenish with supplies for another stage on life's journey; soul energy pulses through us; spiritual light banishes doubts and fears and all dark things; courage awakes and we are strengthened and comforted. Such is prayer."

Through prayer the thief was saved even when in the tortures of death. By prayer the woman at the well was converted and went away skipping with joy. In prayer, Paul was directed into his life work. Our Lord's last breath was prayer. Oh, prayer is a wonderful boon.

Prayer is the Christian's vital breath. The Christian's native air. His watchword at the gates of death; his carry us into God's presence. Do you pray? Pray more. Have you let it lapse; begin again.

Prayer is a precious gift—to give others. Is there any friendship valuable & more enduring than that some man or woman of God should continually carry us into God's presence in prayer? The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much is the Scriptural affirmation. Prayer does things for the people for whom you pray. One can not put the limit to what continued intercession for others can accomplish. Muller's orphanages were started and have been sustained by prayer. Prison doors have been opened, mountains of opposition have been levelled, the seemingly impossible has been overtake, all by prayer.

When God puts upon our heart to pray for some one He honours us, for in that way He makes us, unworthy as we are, a medium of His loving grace. Through us He passes on divine blessing to those for whom we pray. Parents keep their children in the holy way of intercession, have you ever by chance heard your godly father, your praying mother, pouring out her soul with tears for you, her boy, her girl? It is the praying folk that bring about a revival in the neighbourhood. One wonders why the people are at times so sensitive to the preached word. God knows, and perhaps He alone knows who is responsible for the "sound of the wind among the tree tops." One earnest soul, or two, or perhaps a group have been crying for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

Are you such an intercessor for your minister, for the coming Sunday services, for your community, for God's work everywhere. Blessed are the praymakers for they shall have power with God. It may be that things are not going right in your neighborhood. There is discord, confusion, wickedness—Pray. Action does not come first. But to seek the will of God and the power of God comes first. Pray much and after a while things will begin to happen, it may be not through you—that is for God to tell you what to do and when and how to do it. We often do harm, when for example there is a neighborhood quarrel, by rushing out to one and another and try to patch it up. Pray much and God will give us the right spirit and instruction how to act. Yes, I believe much in the guidance of the man controlled by the Holy Spirit.

Intercession is a burden, it is expensive. For one thing it demands absolute self-surrender, and is that not costly? It means carrying the cross, vicarious suffering, for we must take upon ourselves the sins, the waywardness, the illwill, the poverty, the sorrows of those for whom we pray. Intercession involves cryings, midnight pleadings, raids upon our purse. Our time, our money, our leisure are no longer our own. The intercessor must follow his Lord into the garden and there share the burden that lay heavy upon His heart. Yet what a privilege it is to share in the fellowship of His sufferings.

I know a missionary on the Pacific coast of British Columbia who has charge of one of the mission vessels that ply up and down those dangerous waters, bringing gospel cheer to lonely settlements, canneries, mining and lumber camps. A visitor noticed that he had a book on a shelf before the wheel. "That," said the missionary captain, "that is my rosary." It is a list of those for whom I pray as I go from place to place. He filled the quiet times with intercession. One finds that such a list tends to grow. The more we pray for, the more must we pray—The Farm and Ranch Review.

The production of all the principal grain crops in Canada in 1933 is 31 per cent less than in 1932, while the production of hay and forage crops is 11 per cent less and potato and root crops 4 per cent less.

"What Shall I Do To Inherit Eternal Life?"

BY

T. EDGAR ARMSTRONG, B.A.; B.D.

Pastor Wainwright United Church

TEXT: Matthew 19:16. Good Master, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life?Questions range as wide as life itself. You will have noticed that they cluster around Christ. Think of questions asked Him, asked by Him, and concerning Him. Men question about the great verities of life. It is the hidden thing which evokes questions.I think much misunderstanding has prevailed regarding the term "eternal life." To so many it denotes quality;
it means conscious existence. No,
it is not quality. When rightly conceived it refers to quality. If your religion has not brought a quality to your life, you need, to question it. I would discard it. It is not genuine and also will prove inadequate. Quality brings with it its own immortality. Religious truths are deathless.Everyone desires life and life with quality. We have an Educational system in this land. Why educate our children? Why teach them music, song or art? Why apprentice a boy to a trade? This is all done with the idea of bringing certain abilities and qualities to the individual. Once they are acquired we want to use them for the noblest ends.While many ask the question of my text, too few are willing to pay the price "what shall I do, that I may have eternal life?"It was a young man who asked the question and Jesus met his question in all sincerity. If there was any frivolity or smartness in the questioner's mind when he spoke, he must have been amazed when Jesus so quickly faced him with the deep realities of Eternal Life and what he must pay for them.The first challenge Jesus brought to them was to regard the majesty and authority of the moral law.He had addressed Jesus as, "Good Master." Jesus would have him recognize that only God is good. An essential attitude for each individual.
God must be regarded as good. We often draw a distinction between things secular and sacred. Things are not so in themselves. The use to which they are put determine their status. An interest degraded means vice, while if that same interest is enabled to have a virtue.No individual can reach the highest who does not see sacred possibilities, and allows those to play largely in his life. Men have declared "God is Holy." How amiable are thy tabernacles." They have tried to sing the holiness of God into the hearts and lives of others. They recognize the existence of goodness and each man who would attain a life with spiritual tone must begin with that recognition. The more kindly God and goodness are recognized the firmer will be the quality resultant in life.There have emanated from God certain formative truths known as commandments. I have the idea that much went into them from the experimentation of men. Moses has been years in the wilderness before the great experience of the Mount Sinai, Thieving, adultery, bearing false witness it is not to be tolerated in any society if it is to survive. All those commandments must be kept if society is to be relatively safe.Man must see in them the goodness of God and acknowledge their authority over him. This is the first requisite in our search for eternal life.
What is the relation between goodness and you? Are there here two distinct entities? The prophet Jeremiah foretold the day when the commandments would be written in men's hearts. Goodness blended in personality.No person will drift into goodness or attain a life of spiritual quality without recognizing and yielding to the authority of the sacred in life —
God. If this sacred vanishes life becomes sordid. This was the first challenge brought to the young man by Jesus. Can you and I accept it. We shall meet it in our quest for eternal life.Secondly Jesus proposed to him an act of heroic consecration of social good — sell and give.I am convinced that for long years the gospel has had no social implica-tion. In fact it has not for many so called Christians today. Our society has been so individualistic. We have had men singing "Glory to God I'm saved" and indifferent to human need about them. Jesus said that the love of God does not dwell in the hearts of men who do that kind of thing. The real content of the gospel should be achievement of some social good even though it means sacrifice. Christianity was born in a sacrifice. Religion should have had this content for us. If we had watched Jesus as an example, and if we had read our Bibles correctly.
The judgment scene portrayed by Matthew presents divine rewards being meted out for social acts performed to our fellow men. In as much as we did it to these, we did it to me.Jesus evidently was thinking in terms of service so His challenge to this young man was in line with his teaching and practice.Any person who wants to feel the rich glow of life must experience it as the by-product of service rendered.
The "joy" accompanying service rendered for others is heaven's joy to earth come down. Our service may be direct to the individual or to a movement which renders help to men. We cannot all go to China but we can feel the "joy" of helping by supporting the missionary movement. I feel that the capacity and indifference which characterizes church work can never be removed until a social passion grips us and we seek eagerly to share with others what we know of life and have experienced of God.Have you ever done it? If so, you know the joy which comes with impacting truth. I would that all teachers and workers could experience this thrill. The widow's cruse of oil failed not as she shared it.
How true to life's cry: experience!Let us take some of the illustrations persons of history. Do we honor them for their individualism or social passion. I think it is the latter which attracts them to us.We see Nehemiah, who was a cup bearer to the king of Persia, leave his position and accept the hard and hazardous task of leading the people to rebuild the walls of Jerusalem.
Jane Addams built up "Hull Settlement House" in Chicago. William Booth formed the Salvation Army and brought salvation to men in the gutter. W. T. Grenfell ministers to the lone settlers in the bleak coasts of Labrador. Albert Schweitzer, a musician of note and a professor in a German university goes to central Africa to bring God to the blacks.
George Williams founded the W.M.
C.A. and Frances Willard the W.C.
T.U. These people are loved for the service rendered.Think of your own hero and heroine. Do we admire them for their self interest or willingness to serve?
This is an important question for we become like what we admire.If the first statement of Jesus to this young man was a challenge this was a suggestion.A suggestion to be dynamic must be accepted by the whole mind. It must absorb the whole man. We see mighty results of a suggestion in Joseph's life. As a mere lad his sheaf towered above his brothers as they labored in the field. In Egypt
we see him ministering to his humble brothers, who had come for corn. We are glad he exercises forgiveness toward them.Again we see suggestion at its worst in Shakespeare's Macbeth. The first time the suggestion came to him that if Duncan were out of the way he would succeed to the crown,
he was almost horrified. Lady Macbeth goaded him to the deed but later
when Banquo stood between him and the throne he did not need any one to spur him on. He murdered him secretly. The entire man was given over to evil doing to attain his ends.So this great service to which Jesus directs us must grip our whole mind if we would know the joy of Christ-like service.Surely no one asks "what is there for me to do?" On every hand there is opportunity to prove ourselves a friend. "Let none hear you idly saying:There is nothing I can do
When the souls of men are dying
And the master calls for you.Ladies Curling

Lane vs. Welch, rink 1, 2 p.m.
Middlemas vs. Mabe, rink 1, 4 p.m.As exercise brings tone to the body so helpful social service does to our social life.We have far too many indolent people. We witness a creeping apathy coming over many of our adults. Life does not challenge them.The crusaders went forth with passion in their souls and we must catch their passion to enthroned Jesus Christ in our lives and society.
Do you desire quality in your life?
Do you wish to experience radiant living? Hitch your wagon to a star.
Join up with some great ideal. Make your church's objective your's and feel the glow of fellowship with the Doctor's, nurses, Evangelists, Preachers, Teachers and Social Service workers in Canada and the lands outside.Live with these people as partners in a noble work and through even sacrifice, know the life of which Jesus spoke and to which He desires to lead each one of us.Lastly Jesus invited Him to the adventure of discipleship "Come follow me." A challenge? A suggestion and an invitation. Perhaps we forget the character of discipleship. It had all the thrills of the greatest adventure ever known. It called for loyalty, courage, and fidelity. To follow a popular movement was one thing, but to follow an unpopular one was to expose oneself to hazard. We worship without fear of molestation but Christians were viewed with suspicious eyes and they often met in secret. To espouse this cause was to face cruel persecutors.Wendell Holmes, the abolitionist, gave the following advice "Let every youth attach himself early to some unpopular cause and give it his strength and gain strength from such an adventure."Adventure has been associated in many minds with the exploration of lands, but I want you to think of it in connection with ascertaining the possibilities of human and Divine friendship. Let us adventure with Jesus Christ in proving the resources of God and the heights that men
may scale when inspired by his presence.Perhaps to some these answers
may not appear correct but before condemning put them to the test in your life and I believe you will, with me, find the Eternal God your portion "Whom to know is life Eternal."SUNBURST

These suggestions are not for you but you may know some other member whose attention should be drawn to them.Always be late. This may be your only chance for publicity.All bids should be submitted before the game. You may not need them but you likely will.Sweepers should be careful to sit gracefully across the ice just as the shot is being delivered. If possible both sweepers should crouch. This form what is called the "double cross" and helps the shooter's eye and the skips temper. This is done for the same reason that a chicken crosses the road.If the skip misses a shot the other three players should collect up the ice and have a sociable group. This helps the skip's next shot.If the third man is away the skip should never move up his men. This might give them the snowed head.
Pick the strongest player in the waiting room. The spectators will never notice.As soon as a lead or a second man delivers his shot he should hurry back to the tee and take up his position just behind the sweeping crew. He may be more valuable there than in his proper position as his feet may stop a rock which would otherwise slide out. Besides if the players line up in a solid wall on the tee it encourages the spectators to go home to bed.Yell delightedly if your opponent misses a shot. This goes to prove that Darwin was right.Always remember that a game lost in the fault of the other players. It is best to be impartial and blame all three.Always feel free to criticize the shot the skip gives. Some players

Handicrafts In The West

Shortly after the conclusion of the World's Grain Show held at Regina last summer the question arose as to the uses to which the big quarter of a million dollar Grain Show building could be devoted, not only in connection with the annual provincial exhibition but throughout the year. Many suggestions were advanced, but few had any relation to the subject of the use to be made of the building in connection with the annual Provincial Exhibition, possibly because of the size of the structure, the great extent of floor space, and the difficulty in these recent years of finding necessary funds to promote any large development.

The writer now proposes to advance an idea for the consideration not only of the Regina Provincial Exhibition Board, but of people throughout the three prairie provinces. This idea is advanced because it is somewhat in keeping with the international character of the project for which the building was originally constructed; because it presents an opportunity to encourage and develop one aspect of our western life we are in danger of neglecting; and because it appears to be a feasible undertaking at the present time, and, in fact, may even provide a small source of income to many people who are in dire need of every cent they can earn.

The suggestion we advance is that this building erected to house grain and other exhibits of the nations of the world, or at least a portion of it, should continue to be utilized each year for the display of the handicrafts of the people of the many nations who constitute such a large proportion of the population of Western Canadian provinces. In other words, that the various racial and national groups throughout the West be invited, encouraged, even urged, to revive their home handicrafts on a larger scale than before and to exhibit the same, the understanding being that the exhibitors have the right to sell the goods they have placed on exhibit if they so desire.

What we ask, could provide a more colorful, interesting and instructive exhibition than a continuous series of booths each devoted to the handicrafts of different national groups, presided over by men and women of each particular group, dressed in their national costumes?

Some years ago the C.P.R. sponsored the holding of exhibitions of handicrafts throughout Canada, and these were attended by thousands of interested visitors. In conjunction with such exhibitions, festivals and concerts featuring the music of different countries were held. Recently, at Regina, a highly successful folk festival and dance was held in which hundreds of citizens of non-English speaking nationalities participated, each providing their own orchestra or band.

The people of every nationality have some worthwhile contribution they can make to the upbuilding of this Canadian nation. These people have chosen Canada, yes, Western Canada, as their home; they are bringing their children up to be Canadians. They have a wealth of tradition arising out of the past histories of their native lands, of music, poetry, literature, and a bewildering array of handicrafts to contribute that will add richness to the life of the nation now in the making. They should be encouraged to make this contribution. It should be impressed upon them that they are welcome in Canada; that so far from asking or expecting them to forget their old homelands and the customs and traditions and handicrafts of their native countries, we want them to add these as a contribution to the greater beauty and strength of Canada.

Why not, therefore, utilize at least a portion of the fine World's Grain Show building to develop a little annual international exhibition put on by the people of many lands now resident in our midst on these Western plains? Let us have the flags of all nations waving again over booths filled with the arts and handicrafts of Germany, Poland, Norway, Sweden, Ireland, Belgium, Holland, Italy, Yugoslavia, Czechoslovakia, Roumania, Ukraine, Greece, Russia, Austria, Hungary. Let us include China and Japan, who have representatives in our midst. And the Irish, the Scotch, the Welsh should join their contributions with the English, and the French-Canadians to round out the whole.

At the World's Grain Show last summer there were a few of these handicraft exhibits, and they were most interesting although rather overshadowed by the magnitude of the show in other respects. But with one wing of the big building arranged in attractively decorated national booths, with exhibits of the arts and handicrafts of each nation on display, with national flags and national costumes, and—all of which could be provided by and through people now resident in the prairie provinces—a use can be made of the Grain Show building which will return a dividend to Canada, not in cash perhaps, but in nation building. At the same time activity in national arts and handicrafts will be encouraged, these arts and skill in workmanship will not be lost, and, in fact, a valuable and growing domestic market developed for hand-made products from many a humble and needy home.

Strength In The Air

Official Of Air Ministry Satisfied With Britain's Efficiency

Our stunt press so frequently sets our flesh creeping by alluding to our unpreparedness to ward off air attacks that it is refreshing to hear the views of a real expert.

I had a talk to-day with one of the high officials of the Air Ministry. He scoffed at the notion that we should imitate Italy in constructing "flunk holes" beneath our aeroplanes. He was not even greatly concerned that civilians should be trained in the use of gas masks. When I reminded him that in the matter of aeroplane squadrons we came very low down in the list of the seven big powers, his contention was that it was not aeroplanes that counted, but the efficiency of the pilots. Aeroplanes could be turned out at the rate of hundreds a month if necessary.

"Where do we stand," I asked, "in the matter of efficiency?" "Measured by this room," he said, "we are right up to the ceiling. And the power that comes next is America. Her position would be just about two-thirds up the wall."—London Cor., Ottawa Journal.

Swedish Sea Serpent

Sea Monster Disporting In Lake For Thirty Years Or More

The sea monster disporting in the waters off British Columbia is not the only one of its species, numerous people in the province of Jämtland, in northern Sweden, insist.

Accounts of the Canadian phenomenon have revived interest in the "Storjo monster," as it is usually called, which people by the hundreds have reported seeing for the past 30 years or more.

The national is said to resemble a huge snake 30 to 35 feet long, is of a brownish grey color, has big eyes and moves swiftly in the water. Once, residents reported, it followed a steamer almost across the entire lake and on another occasion was chased by two armed men in a boat. A Stockholm paper sent on a expedition in a fruitless effort to catch it.

Fewer Forest Fire Losses

Figures For B.C. Last Year Lowest In Two Decades

Forest fire losses in British Columbia during the 1933 season totaled $408,726, the smallest in two decades. In 1925 forest fires caused the greatest damage in the history of the province, when $2,747,000 worth of timber and other property went up in smoke.

Most of the fire of major calibre during the 1933 season occurred in southern British Columbia. Complete records released by the forestry department show 1,082 fires and lightning was responsible for approximately 25 per cent.

Russia Has Costly Project

Details of a $51,500,000 project just started in Russia for the study of the human body ill and healthy, and from every angle, including eugenics and heredity, were made public by a two-man commission which has been studying American hospitals and medical centres since last November. The project, to be known as All-Union Institute of Experimental Medicine, is located in a suburb of Leningrad, called Dolsturbo.

Object To Wax Models

"Effeminate" wax models for displaying uniforms in military tailor shops in Rome has aroused the ire of Fascist newspapers and officers, who demand that the "effeminate" figures be replaced by "more military and less endearing clothes horses." One officer, writing in the newspaper Trionfo, said that "shop windows show officers with pomaded hair, feminine figures, eyebrows and lashes of a Garbo and lovely carnalised finger-nails."

Makes Bank-Note Paper

English Factory Has Been Doing Business Since 1700

The manufacture of bank-note paper is one of the oldest established businesses in Great Britain, according to J. M. Dalgarno, technical representative of a British firm of distributors of registered water-marked paper, who visited Canada on his way to Quana Lampa, the capital city of the Federated Malay states, to assist in setting up a plant to make postage stamps for the government there.

A factory has been manufacturing bank-note paper ever since 1700 in Hampshire, England, and the only other place in the United Kingdom licensed to make such paper is in Scotland.

Mr. Dalgarno said the quality of bank-note paper is established by the number of times it can be folded and a company is obliged to guarantee its paper for so many thousand folds according to the quality of paper required. The firm which Mr. Dalgarno represents also manufactures special cheque forms which are proof against the tampering of the forger.

The paper which is used contains a secret chemical which sets up a reaction against any altering of figures or letters engraved on the cheque. With this special process and its chemical reaction any bank clerk can detect immediately if a cheque has been changed or forged.

Strange Story From Desert

Captive Legionnaires Have Been Slaves Of Arabs For Years

The members of a colony of captive legionnaires who, forgotten by the world, have for many years labored in the desert, are now beginning to find their way back to civilization. The first intimation of the existence of such a colony came when an ex-legionary named Lopes Poito, who had been regarded as dead for many years, three months ago staggered into the Spanish garrison of Villa Cisneros, in South-West Morocco, completely exhausted. The Spaniards told a strange tale of a band of legionnaires of all nationalities held captive and held under conditions of virtual slavery for Arab taskmasters.

A few named Arab Cohen later arrived in the French zone with a similar story. Thereafter a Spanish commission took up the matter and after negotiations aided by friendly Saharan sheiks, the first party of legionnaires arrived at Cap Juby, near Villa Cisneros.

Lilac Came From Persia

Bush Has Three Distinct Species And Several Varieties

The lilac, which is one of the most fragrant and splendid of flowering bushes originally came from Persia, but it has been a naturalized plant in the world's gardens for several centuries. There are two or three distinct species and several varieties, the colors varying from deep purple to pure white. Everybody is familiar with its fragrance, which is often too powerful to make it welcome as a table-decoration with flowers. The perfume is exhaled most strongly in the evening and in mild showery weather, and is due to the evaporation of essential oil. The lilac belongs to the olive family, and is closely allied to the common privet, but it bears a more fragrant fruit, and is valuable except for the splendor of its blossoms.

Marvels of the Human Eye
By F. M. CROWE, Optometrist-Optician, Calgary

NO. 9—ARE HUMAN EYES DEGENERATING?

This question is frequently asked by people who observe closely the steadily increasing number of "glass-wearers" as compared with the generation ago. The answer is—No. The eyes of the present generation are in no wise better or weaker than those of our ancestors unless it can be proved that the whole physique of the race has degenerated. As is the whole physical body so are the eyes. But much more is required of our eyes today than formerly. The unprecedented growth of manufacturing and commercial life, the strenuous struggle for existence, the ever increasing complexity of modern civilization, the knowledge of the world in all lines of human endeavour, knowledge that must be mastered to achieve success, put far greater strain on the eyes to-day than heretofore. Our schools are far more exacting and severe, the business and scientific worlds require closer application and more painstaking care than ever before. Electricity has turned night into day making it possible to do much work by artificial illumination that was formerly impossible and unnecessary. All this then requires the use of sharper vision and more hours per day of it than was necessary in former times and because of these exacting demands on the eyes, latent imperfections and errors of refraction causing eyestrain, are made manifest by symptoms of discomfort and distress, compelling us to seek improvement of vision and the comfort afforded by proper glasses.

Investigation has shown that primitive races of men have the same irregularities of the eyes as we have, the difference lies in the use to which they are put. So when Nature gives the warning signals—common sense would say—take heed.

Protective Association

Toronto Landlords Have Problem With Destitute Tenants

Toronto landlords have formed a protective association. Landlords should not be shouldered with the double burden of providing both free rent and most of the city's taxes, the meeting agreed. It was attended by about 200 people and lasted more than three hours.

H. L. Rogers, former alderman, was the principal speaker. "It is unfair," he declared, "that the landlord should be faced with the ugly alternative of having either to turn a destitute man out on the street or to give him free rent. It is dishonest to make you pay for relief through taxes, and then to make you pay rent for the poor when others who own stocks and bonds have to pay no more than income taxes."

Where Jay-Walking Is Legal

Jay-walking is quite legal in Britain and no pedestrian need obey a traffic light. This was made plain by Major Oliver Stanley, minister of transport, in reply to a parliamentary question. The minister said it would not be practicable to impose the same legal obligations as on automobilists at street intersections guarded by traffic lights.

Good Success With Japan

Value Of Exports In 1933 Over Million Dollars Higher

An increase of more than $1,000,000 in Canadian exports to Japan during the past year was one of the bright spots of Canada's foreign trade in 1933, says a trade review of the department of trade and commerce. Exports increased from $11,995,887 in 1932 to $13,001,704 in 1933. Exports of wheat flour to Japan increased in value from $383,683 to $409,367; wool pulp shipments increased in value from $484,332 to $1,444,284 and scrap iron from $15,069 to $300,625. On the other hand, however, marked decreases were shown in the value of exports of wheat and lumber.

PLAN FOR WHEAT CONTROL UNDER QUOTA SYSTEM

Ottawa.—An individual quota system for western farmers to control wheat production under the quota agreement, was proposed in the house of commons by Ernest E. Perley, Cons. Qu'Appelle, Sask. Farmers would be licensed to sell grain so Canada's 200,000,000-bushel world export quota would not be exceeded and compulsory acreage reduction would not become necessary.

The Saskatchewan member made his proposal when continuing the address debate. It would involve co-operation from the provinces, in fact they would assume administrative control. The first step would be to add domestic wheat requirements to the export total and divide this by the number of acres to be sown in the west this spring. This would give the estimated bushels per acre to be reduced, probably about 15 on an acreage of 21,000,000. The figure 15 forms the basis of the scheme.

Individual farmers then would be issued permits, based on sworn statements as to acreage.

If for instance, a farmer seeded 100 acres and the expected production was 15 bushels, his permit would enable him to sell 1,500 bushels. If his crop exceeded that total, he could purchase the permit of another farmer whose crop did not come up to average. If, for instance, the western total crop exceeded the export total of 200,000,000 bushels and the average domestic requirement of 125,000,000 bushels, the surplus above the licensed sales would remain on the farms and would not depress exchange prices.

Sankey Cheats The Law

Hangs Himself in Cell in South Dakota Penitentiary

Sioux Falls, S.D.—Verne Sankey, kidnapper and gangster, called "America's public enemy No. 1," cheated the law by committing suicide.

He hanged himself with two neckties in his cell at the South Dakota state penitentiary here, where he was held on federal charges of conspiracy to kidnap for $60,000 ransom last February, Charles Boettcher II, Denver broker.

The body of the one-time railroad of Melville, Sask., was found by a guard standing in a corridor nearby. The notorious outlaw, after fashioning the crude noose with the ties, knotted it to a bar, then stepped off his cot.

E. Neely, deputy United States marshal, one of the two guards assigned to Sankey's cell block, discovered the body. Although he had been in the corridor at the time, he was out of sight of Sankey. "Thus ended the law's plan to send Sankey to prison for life. His counsel, Ben B. Laake, Denver, had disclosed Sankey had planned to plead guilty to a charge of conspiracy to kidnap for ransom in the Boettcher case.

Disorders in Paris

Inability To Balance Budget Factor In Internal Trouble

New York.—The serious disorders in Paris commanded undivided attention in Wall Street because of the importance of France in international finance and her position as leader of the "gold-bloc" nations.

The consensus in banking quarters was that if the republic is forced to abandon the international gold standard it will be because of conditions centering chiefly around balancing of the budget, rather than a desire on the part of other nations to bring about such an eventuality by importing gold.

It was generally believed that if the country should declare any sort of ban against the export of gold, it would have an adverse effect in the major financial centres of the world only for the time being.

Bankers who have studied the situation in France for some time believe the inability of the several French governments which have been in power in the last few months to balance the budget is the one factor more than anything else contributing to the internal upheaval. Important also, they pointed out, is the inflated price structure in the country and the unfavorable trade balance.

House Of Lords Reform

Lord Salisbury Moves For Consideration Of Reform Bill

London.—Lord Salisbury moved in the house of lords that a "humble" address be presented to the king, "praying" his majesty to consent to consideration of a bill for reform of the house of lords.

Lord Salisbury took this step because he had been criticised when he first presented the bill last December 19 for usurping the prerogative of the king. He was told he should have sought permission of his majesty to introduce the measure.

The bill would limit membership in the upper house to 250, of whom 150 would be hereditary peers, 150 chosen from outside the hereditary peerage, royal peers, a reduced number of bishops and lay peers. Lord Salisbury said his scheme would give the lords sufficient power to prevent the country being hurried into vast changes without time to consider them.

Welcomed At Naval Base

Prince George Starts Long Tour Of South Africa

Simonstown, South Africa.—With the customary naval ceremonial honors, Prince George was welcomed to the Simonstown naval base, headquarters of the African station of the royal navy.

After a civic reception, the king's youngest son visited the training ship General Botha and then went aboard the cruiser Dorsetshire, flagship of Vice-Admiral E. R. G. Evans "Evans of the Broke."

Canberra, Australia.—Tentative arrangements announced for the visit several months hence of Prince George, who will also visit New Zealand, provide for his arrival at Fremantle on Oct. 4. He will come direct to Melbourne to attend centenary celebrations of Victoria state. Later he will visit all the other states.

Banking Committee

Fifty Members Who Will Compose Body Announced In House

Ottawa.—Of particular significance in view of the important banking legislation which will be considered during the present session, the names of the 50 members who will compose the banking and commerce committee have been announced in the house of commons.

Members from Saskatchewan include W. A. Bryson (Cons., Moose Jaw); C. E. Bothwell (Lib., Swift Current); T. F. Donnelly (Lib., Willow Bunch); E. R. MacMillan (Cons., Saskatoon); E. E. Perley (Cons., Qu'Appelle), and John Vallance (Lib., South Battleford).

Business Shows Improvement

Montreal.—There has been a distinct improvement in business in general during the past few months and this has been immediately reflected in the output of electricity for industrial purposes. James S. Morris, president of the Montreal Light, Heat and Power Co., told the annual meeting of shareholders.

Railway Amalgamation

This May Happen Unless Conditions Improve, Says Hon. Cahan

Ottawa.—Amalgamation of the Canadian Pacific Railway and the Canadian National Railway will be unavoidable unless there is considerable improvement in operations during the present year, Hon. C. E. Cahan, secretary of state, said in addressing the annual meeting of the Ottawa Women's Conservative Association and the Conservative Women's Forum.

The minister said he did not speak for the government in making this suggestion, but that it was his considered opinion there would be no alternative to fusion of the two great railroads unless conditions improved.

Elect Officers At Convention

Saskatchewan Man Heads Canadian Shorthorn Breeders' Association

Toronto.—The Canadian Shorthorn Breeders' Association in convention here, passed a resolution that all money paid in grants at various exhibitions must be paid over by the exhibitors on a proportionate basis to all winning animals and not on the prize list alone, as has been the practice.

The following officers were elected: President, N. M. Ross, Indian Head, Sask.; first vice-president, Duncan Marshall, Duncan, Ont.; second vice-president, William Walde, Stratford, Ont.; secretary-treasurer, G. E. Day, Guelph, Ont.

CATTLE EXPORT FROM CANADA TO BE GREATER

Calgary.—Jack Byers, manager of the Western Stock Growers' Association, has received notice from Hon. H. H. Stevens, minister of trade and commerce, that cattle shipments to the United Kingdom equaling those of 1932 would be permitted this year until June 30.

An announcement from Ottawa in December had stated shipments for the first three months of 1934 would be restricted to those in the same period of 1933. In January, February and March of last year a total of 7,883 beef animals left Canadian ports for the United Kingdom. To date this year nearly 5,000 head have gone to the overseas market and had the December ruling been followed, cattle men here say, exportations would have shortly ceased.

According to the statement from Ottawa 20,000 head of cattle will be permitted to enter the United Kingdom in the first six months of this year. In the first six months of 1933, 22,000 head left Canada, 9,667 of these being from western Canada of which 4,796 were from Alberta.

Byers said the situation for the last half of this year is still obscure. Advice from the United Kingdom indicates the quota against Irish and Canadian cattle has not had the desired effect, for British farmers' returns for home-produced beasts have not been increased, he said.

MAYOR RINFRET

Recall Revolution

Hitting In Paris Brings Back Memories Of Fateful Days Of 1871

Paris.—As mobs continued rioting in Paris, despite steps towards formation of a cabinet of national unity, oldsters recalled the fateful communal revolution of 1871 when Frenchmen fought against Frenchmen in Paris, virtually under the eyes of the new German conquerors.

The Franco-German war ended with the capitulation of Paris, Jan. 29, 1871, after a five-month siege and bombardment. On March 8, two weeks after the Germans had formally occupied Paris for two days, the commons was proclaimed; in other words, Paris was declared independent of any government except that chosen of its own people, regardless of any outside or central power.

The revolutionaries took over affairs and then began the second siege of Paris, a siege by French troops while victorious German troops looked on. The communists massacred foremost citizens, destroyed many fine buildings. The punishment was ruthless; 20,000 men and women were slain in the streets before the government regained control.

Seriously Injured In Riot

Senator Menier Of Paris Once Well-Known In Canada

Paris.—Senator Gaston Menier, wealthy chocolate manufacturer, was beaten during the rioting in the Place de la Concorde. Knocked down and kicked, his condition was reported serious.

Senator Menier, seriously injured during the height of the Paris riots, used to be well-known in Canada where he formerly owned the large island of Anticosti, in the St. Lawrence river.

Probe U.S. Army Contracts

ANOTHER POLITICAL PARTY FORMED IN ENGLAND

Our picture shows the leader of the newly-formed United British Party, Cecil Serocold Skeels, an organization opposed to the Fascists, seated in his office in London. Note the large Union Jack and a portrait of King George. Mr. Skeels, who will be the party's candidate in the coming by-election at Cambridge, says the United British Party is a "National Loyalist movement" which has been formed to take immediate action against the menace of a socialist dictatorship and the dark powers of delay, apathy and obstruction.

Simon Issues Warning

If Disarmament Efforts Fail Britain Must Strengthen Army

London.—Clear notice that if present disarmament efforts fail and a state of unlimited rearmament follows, the United Kingdom will have to reconsider the present levels of her own army, was sounded in the house of commons by Sir John Simon, foreign secretary.

Sir John, speaking in debate on disarmament, stressed the revised British plan for disarmament was a realistic plan seeking a reasonable compromise. He declared it would be followed up by a visit of Anthony Eden, lord privy seal, to Paris, Rome and Berlin to make sure the British proposals were completely understood.

The British belief that Germany's claim to equality of rights must be recognized before any progress can be made with all-round limitation and reduction of armaments was also set forth by Sir John. There was little likelihood of any peace while a great nation was held in subjection, he added.

Riding The Rods

Youth Is Killed Under Wheels Of Train At Jasper

Jasper, Alta.—R.C.M.P. were investigating the death of Bill Ross 16, Edmonton, who died under the wheels of a train in the Jasper yards after he had jumped from the tender of the engine.

With Alex. Hadden, Jasper, he was returning from Vancouver and was "riding the rods" between the tender and the passenger car. It is believed that he struck a slippery snow bank and skidded down to the rails. Hadden, when the train stopped at the station, returned to find the lifeless body.

INTEREST CUT IS URGED TO SPEED UP BUSINESS

Ottawa.—Drastring changes in the general financial policy of Canada were urged on the Bennett government by one of its supporters in the house of commons, James H. Stull, Cons., Selkirk, Man. He suggested compulsory reduction of interest, conversion of government bonds at lower interest rates and the issuing of $100,000,000 in cash to establish a reconstruction purchasing board.

Canada stood at the economic crossroads, the Manitoba member said, urging the government to accept a motion proposed by George Cooke, United Farmer member for MacLeod. It proposed a large scale national building program financed by new currency, to escape interest charges. No decision was made on the Cooke motion, the debate not being concluded.

"There is an issue facing the government to-day, the like of which has never faced any government in Canada," said Mr. Stull.

"To the extent to which the government faces that issue it will be either victorious or defeated and the welfare of the great mass of the Canadian people will be enhanced or the opportunity lost."

Uncontrolled inflation was not acceptable to him, the Manitoba member continued, but "I believe the kind of preaching of sound money we have had in this country is wholly untrue. It has been sweet sounding for the receivers of interest but it has meant fury for the masses of Canada."

If the government placed $100,000,000 behind a reconstruction purchasing board, Canadian industry would receive $1,000,000,000 in new orders, Mr. Stull predicted. The board would act as a hopper, where farmers could place orders and receive goods, attaching liens on to their property without interest. The orders would go to Canadian manufacturers, financed by the $100,000,000 fund.

Canadians were being placed in servitude by "this straight-jacket of interest," Mr. Stull said, advocating compulsory rate reductions. He proposed legislation cutting 33 1/2 per cent off interest rates payable in Canada under all forms of contract. In addition, Canada might approach United States owners of Canadian bonds through the international joint commission, seeking one-third reduction rates in that country. Overtures might be made to English owners of Canadian bonds.

ALBERTA WILL MAKE MOVE TO STABILIZE PRICES

Edmonton, Alta.—Extension of public utilities board powers to various products to stabilize prices and avoid unfair competition, was announced in the speech from the throne, read by Hon. W. L. Walsh, lieutenant-governor of Alberta, at the opening of the legislature.

Certain projected highways are to be undertaken as part of an unemployment relief program, it is hoped.

The speech contains the announcement of a broadening of the Debt Adjustment act, passed in 1933, to meet the needs of other classes of debtors, besides protecting resident farmers and home owners. In order to extend the operation of the act in this respect, certain amendments to the federal bankruptcy act will be sought.

The proposal to extend the powers of the public utilities board will arouse much debate. Under powers given last year, the board conducted an investigation into milk prices. Some months ago there were suggestions the board should extend price fixing to bread.

Now the government proposes that the principle of last year's legislation be "extended" to other products and to the distribution of other commodities in order that unfair competition may be avoided, that prices to producers may be stabilized, that fair wages may be paid and the price to the consumer maintained at a just and equitable level.

The legislature will be asked to ratify the action of the government in extending to farmers the period for making payments under the Tax Consolidation act. The speech also forecasts certain changes in this act.

Bremer Is Freed

Details Of Ransom Payment Are Not Revealed

St. Paul.—Freedom, bought and paid for with a fortune in money, was Edward G. Bremer's again when he returned from 22 days in a kidnapper's lair, wounded and exhausted.

The full $200,000 ransom, $60,000 in $5 bills and the rest in $10 bills, was delivered by Walter Magee after a hitch in previous plans for payment and thwarted arrangements arousing fresh anxiety among the family that Bremer might never return.

Magee, wealthy contractor friend, who received the first ransom note January 17 when the banker was seized, was sworn to secrecy and would not reveal details of the ransom payment.

Manitoba Session Opens

Revision Of Statutes Is Forecast In Throne Speech

Winnipeg.—Revision and consolidation of provisions in regard to taxation powers of municipalities, consideration of legislation to give greater uniformity in laws relating to succession duties and revision of other statutes were forecast in the speech from the throne, delivered by Lieutenant-Governor J. D. McGregor, at the opening of the second session of the 19th Manitoba legislature.

The unemployment problem continued grave, with one out of every ten in Manitoba receiving relief, and providing necessary funds was becoming increasingly burdensome.

Highway Accidents

Philadelphia.—Take it from Captain W. J. Ruch, of the state highway patrol, there is no necessity for the modern automobile to be geared up to move than 50 miles an hour because "the average man is not physically or mentally capable of driving at greater speeds." That says the troop commander, is the explanation for most accidents.

Amendment To Marking Act

Ottawa.—Designed to prevent deceptions in the marking of articles manufactured from precious metals, while at the same time stimulating such manufacture among the goldsmiths and silversmiths of Canada, a bill amending the Precious Metals Marking act, passing through a committee stage in the house of commons, now stands for third reading.

BUSINESS is a large word and in its primary meaning covers the whole range of man's efforts. The same principle of thrift, energy, concentration and brains win success in any branch from medicine to dry goods—Andrew Carnegie.
